Hamlin Country Wheat Crop 170 Car Loads Rolled Out To Date

Records show that the year 1937, up to that date was the banner wheat year around Hamlin. But as the final shipment of wheat comes to a show down, this year 1938 is a little better than last . . . not better yields or better wheat . . . but the carloadings this year are a little over a year ago.

Last year everything went to wheat. This year the acreage was greater, but an early spring with a late freeze did the trick to cut production far below 1937 per acre yield. The harvesting season has been mostly ideal. Some damage from winds . . . some delay came from bog-downs in wet fields.

Just how the wheat producers came out this year financially is not quite clear. We do know that a lot of good biscuits could be had from the Hamlin wheat crop, but before that wheat is ready for biscuits it must be processed and converted into $ values, over and over. A bushel of wheat might have sold for 60 cents and a sack of flour will cost around $1.60 . . . the labor of wheat harvest was short and thus the dollar income was short. The time that must pass before the next harvest is long and many dollars will be needed to buy flour with before it passes.

It is fine on railroads to have the wheat business, and it means a lot to the wheat farmer—but the number benefitting in dollars from the wheat is small compared to the number of dollars the people in the wheat community must spend for sacks of flour or bread. What we need is a customer's flour mill and 90 per cent of all farmers producing wheat. The shorts and bran would come in to produce good milk and butter—some meat, hogs and chickens. It does not take many dollars where there's plenty to eat.

RED CAPS SKIN HITSON HIGHBALLS

The McCaulley Red Caps beat out the Hitson ball club Saturday at the Hamlin Park to the tune of 13 to 3. McCaulley and Royston play another league game at Hamlin Saturday.

The Wise Chapel Owls came to McCaulley Sunday and went away losing a hard fought game to the Red Caps by a score of 10 and 9.

Next Sunday the Red Caps take on the fast Trent Oilers at McCaulley. Ball fans from all parts of the state are expected to witness this game as the Red Caps lost two games to the Trent club by a very narrow margin. The fans and the club are after revenge.

Parker May, of Washington City, accompanied by a friend, Miss Flora Booth, also of Washington, arrived Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. M. P. May. Parker has been in various governmental services for several years and is at present in the Farm Security Administration. Miss Booth is with the administration governing the production of coal in the United States.

REVIVAL MEETING

Revival services will begin at the local Church of the Nazarene, Sunday, June 26, at 11 A. M. Rev. C. W. Barpo, evangelist of Guthrie, Okla., will do the preaching. Rev. Barpo is a successful evangelist and comes recommended as a great soul winner. Mrs. Barpo will be in charge of the music. The pastor and the members of the church extend a cordial invitation to the members of other churches to attend these services. May we have your prayers and support for this revival effort for the salvation of souls and the refreshing of the spiritual life of all our people.

W. F. RUTHERFORD, Pastor.

MISS GENEVA ALBRITTON TO BE FESTIVAL QUEEN

The annual Jones County Folk Festival will be held in Anson this year on July 14, 15 and 16 with many attractions already carded and others being planned.

The festival will open on Thursday night, July 14, with a pageant of old time cowboys on the famous Chittenden ranch. Colored lights torches will illuminate the scene and after the pageant a gigantic fireworks display will conclude that part of the program.

On Friday afternoon at 5 P. M. there will be an old time street parade to be followed that night with a folk festival at the new high school stadium and more fireworks.

More events are carded for Saturday including the crowning of the Jones County Queen, to be furnished by Hamlin this year. Hamlin has selected Miss Geneva Albritton to serve as Queen.

Also to be included in the three day events will probably be a Pioneer Day and a committee from the Lions Club is now making arrangements for such a day. This has been an annual event and attracts several hundred old timers of the county—the day is theirs to swap yarns and to be honored guests at a noon lunch.

Other events include an old-time fiddler's contest, negro folk festival and a street dance.—G. D. Triplett, Secretary.

All of the above will be properly installed on July 11.

J. Fred Hawkins, of Anson, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Proctor, this week. He is six years of age.

DEATH CLAIMS ED HOWINGTON

Ed Howington, age 58 years, 1 month and 15 days, passed away at the home of his brother, G. B. Howington, on Union Avenue, Sunday morning at 4:00 o'clock. He had suffered with cancer for many months, facing certain death all the time.

Ed Howington was a pioneer citizen of Hamlin. He had worked at construction works in Hamlin perhaps more than any other person, and was always considered a very dependable citizen. He had never married, and only one brother survives.

Funeral services were conducted at the Barrow Funeral Parlor, Sunday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock, in charge of Rev. J. Henry Littleton. Interment was in East Cemetery.

GARRETT DETAINED AT WASHINGTON

SPECIAL REPORT FROM LOCAL CONGRESSMAN

WORK AFTER ADJOURNMENT—Due to the fact that there are many unfinished pieces of work on hand in my office I will not be able to come home immediately after adjournment. Many WPA and PWA projects and other matters are right now in a crucial stage and it may take two weeks or more after adjournment to get them ironed out with the departments before I can leave here for home. Such items are more easily handled here than from the district and they are so important to the people that I feel I must remain here and handle them as fast as possible.

SPECIAL SESSION—Before Congress has hardly finished one session, there is talk of another. It is said that President Roosevelt intends to call a special session of Congress soon after the November election. The purpose of such a session would be to get action on the government reorganization bill and other legislation.

BANKRUPTCY LAWS—A plan to modify the Federal Bankruptcy laws has been approved by both Houses of Congress. Corporation and other business organizations, under the plan, could take their debt problems to court in an effort to reach an agreement with their creditors on an adjustment of downward debt charges. Those wage earners whose total income does not exceed $3,600 a year would have the same privileges.

CHILD LABOR—For years Congress has been trying to put an end to child labor in industry and each time it failed. In 1916, 1918, 1919, and in 1922 Congress tried and tried to stop the employment in industry of children under 14 years of age and each time the Supreme Court found the law invalid. Then came the struggle to have the constitution amended to give Congress the power to legislate an end to child labor. The states protested however, and refused to approve the amendment. Today Congress is again trying to put a stop to this unfair practice. The age limit has been raised, however, to 16 years. It is now taken for granted that the Supreme Court, because of the view of its decision in the upholding of the Wagner Labor Relations Act, will approve the law barring labor of children. If this happens it will be unnecessary to amend the Constitution.

FLOOD CONTROL—NAVIGATION BILLS—Two navigation-flood control bills were amended to change the possibility of giving the army engineers authority over electric power developments. Safeguards against this were inserted by the Senate and the bills sent to confer-

Addressed Farmers

J. E. McDONALD

Agricultural Commissioner of Texas

Addressed a large number of citizens at the Hamlin High School Auditorium Thursday night.

Mr. McDonald used most of his time discussing the Cotton Domestic Allotment Plan. This plan is based on acreage, production and the amount of cotton the home consumption will use—cotton beyond that figure would compete in the world market at the farmer's risk. Raise all he wants to but "peg" the domestic allotment at a certain substantial price.

A TELEGRAM

Washington, DC., June 23, 244P
BOWEN POPE HAMLIN TEX:

PRESIDENT HAS JUST APPROVED YOUR PWA APPLICATION FOR GRANT ONLY OF SIXTY FIVE THOUSAND FOUR HUNDRED FIFTY FOUR DOLLARS FOR HAMLIN WATER WORKS.
CLYDE L. GARRETT, M. C.

The above telegram came just as the Herald was going to press Thursday and this grant, along with the approval of the Hamlin-Rotan highway, seems to place Hamlin in line for a lot of needed improvements. Listen for MORE.

BUSINESS CHANGES OCCURRED RECENTLY

Last week, Floyd L. Renfro relinquished his place as market man at the Model Grocery and established a cafe business, which will be named the City Cafe, and is next door to the Barrow Furniture Co. Mr. Renfro has been dealing in the market business in Hamlin for many years and now he says he will cook and sell meat and other things.

To take the place of Mr. Renfro, two other experienced fellows, O. H. Bennie and Charles L. Sellers formed a partnership in the market line and now they may be found at the Model Grocery. Sellers seems to be the stock man while, of course, Bennie is the fellow at the market. He resigned his place at the Safeway after a year and a half there, to go in business for himself.

Announcements have reached Hamlin that Miss Willie Boone, daughter of S. T. Boone, of Floyd, Texas, and formerly of Hamlin, was recently married to Mr. Harvard Pettis of Houston. After a wedding trip they will make their home in Houston. Miss Boone has been with the City National Bank of Houston for many years. Miss Boone is a graduate of the Hamlin High School.

MRS. PARDUE HAD OPERATION IN TEMPLE HOSPITAL

On Wednesday of last week, Mrs. A. E. Pardue underwent a very serious major operation in a Temple hospital. Her condition is reported satisfactory.

Haliburton's Cementers Held to 7 to 8 Score Mon. Oilers Well Backed

When it comes to base ball, Hamlin is perhaps the best fan town in all West Texas for a town its size. And when it comes to a ball team, General Crude Oilers have perhaps the best team of any town, of any size in West Texas.

But the Oilers went up against a real ball team Monday at the Hamlin City Park. The Oilers had the edge on the visitors almost from the start, and the grand stand went wild with enthusiasm. The grand stand was jam-packed. Hamlin business was suspended for the game between her General Crude workers and the Duncan, Oklahoma, Haliburton Cementers. It was the finest crowd seen in Hamlin in many moons. Everything was ideal for the game . . . plenty hot, not much wind, hardly any dust, and what a fine gentlemanly acting crowd of ball players.

The first thing to attract a newcomer fan's attention to both teams, were their uniforms. Latest styles of construction and as bright and clean as if just out of the factory. The Cementers wore a brilliant red with white letterings "Cementers" across the breast and an "H" on the left arm, and white numbers on their backs. And say, folks did you ever see a better looking bunch of men? All husky, neat, smiling looking young men, and in all the tight places in the game, not a ripple of discord, not a murmur from either side. The "home boys", the General Crude Oilers, were dressed as neatly as the visitors. They wore grey suits, with red letterings . . . a monogram combination of a G and C with smaller lettering of Oilers across the breast with red numbers on their backs.

The only thing anyone could possibly wish to be other, were a few rough talking "hoorangers," pitching in expressions that were heard in the back and lots of long ago. That is not sport, it is an antiquated form of ignorance. It is no use in razzing an umpire when he makes a decision. It does nobody any good but does make courteous people feel ashamed of the conduct. It is good sport to give a hand to the opponent for his good playing and happy smiles. That is what many of the men got from Hamlin people. The catcher was one big happy "Babe" Ruth looking fellow, and O Boy, he got one homer and a hit every time at the bat and it was in keeping with his ability that he got a hand from everybody.

Of course the Oilers played the best or they would not have marked up one more score than the Cementers. To be liberal, it is safe to say the teams were well matched. Hamlin people may expect to hear of these teams crossing bats again somewhere sometime. While commenting, one other observation we might make, it seemed that the Cementers were larger than the Oilers, but they were no better runners, not so good on the field, but perhaps better batters. The ball batted into a field of rapid runners generally gets bagged. But let's examine the box score. Here it is:

OFFICIAL REPORT

The famed Haliburton Cementers from Oklahoma fell before the undefeated General Crude Oilers of Hamlin here Monday afternoon, 8-7.

The Oilers have won 10 straight games with no defeats this season.

"Lefty" Courtney checked the Cementers in the clutches, while Talley of the Cementers' staff found the going rough.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NEWS

HAMLIN AND ROTAN ROAD RECEIVES APPROVAL

A telegram received from Congressman Garrett advises that he has succeeded in getting presidential approval on the Hamlin and Rotan road project. Official notice of approval and work orders will come through regular channels within a short time. This is a result of work by your Highway committee and they are to be commended for the results obtained. We shall expect now that work will soon be ready to start on this project.

MEMBERSHIP IN WEST TEXAS GAS & OIL ASSOCIATION

The Gas and Oil Committee of which Mr. Mac Brundage is chairman, put on membership campaign a few days ago and succeeded in getting 43 paid memberships for Hamlin. This committee expects to finish their work at an early date and believe they will secure several more members.

BOARD OF TRADE COMMITTEE ACTIVE

Solicitors continue to come to Hamlin with their various schemes, and our members so far are very loyal, by asking such solicitors to come to the Chamber of Commerce office and secure a letter of approval from above committee. Some, however, seem to have forgotten and go ahead and refuse or accept the solicitor's offers. Let us urge every member to re-read the small card on the large card you have in your place of business and comply with same.

This is a protection to our business people and so far has easily saved our community $300 that if solicitors were allowed to proceed as heretofore they would have gotten, and the larger per cent would have left the community. This is not meant as a thrust at any of our communities in our trade area, for this committee has said in each case when they have refused a letter of approval that if they will leave the promoter of the scheme out they will gladly give a cash donation, for any worthy object that the particular community may need.

STONEWALL COUNTY'S 50th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

There is being held this week in Aspermont a 3 days celebration of the 50th Anniversary of Stonewall County. The Publicity committee is working on a program that will include several cars going from Hamlin on the second day which is Friday of this week. If you are called on to furnish your car or help out in any way join in and let us play neighbor to our neighbor/city to the north this Friday.

Postmaster Bonner is displaying some new three cent stamps. It is the Thomas Jefferson issue—a dark blue. Get one and see how you like it. You will find that they have turned the face of Jefferson to the right, which according to our observation, is just the reverse to what it should be. His face should be to the left or partly looking towards the front.

MADE IN JAPAN

It is remarkable how many trinket articles found about offices, homes and in stores that are labeled "Made in Japan." But the most unusual thing Ye Herald man has noticed was at a recent patriotic gathering, the Texas flag was marked "Made in Japan." Maybe many trinket stuff we find about is too insignificant for Americans to make. The point here is that when a people act so reckless towards humanity they should not have the patronage of a peaceful humanly acting people.

WHEN IS A POLITICIAN A POLITICIAN

That question is in the limelight in Texas these days. It is being used in a disparaging sense by quite a lot of people.

Webster says a "politician" is one who is skilled in the art of government or one who is occupied with the management of a system of government." That would imply "experience." It has no meaning of disfavor or crookedness. Just as well refer in a disrespectful manner to a person who has given years and years to handling of machinery, or practicing medicine, or anything that depends on skill for success. Some people would like to see all office holders, or has been office holders kept out of governmental affairs, because they are "politicians." As long as a person's conduct holds up as to honesty and morality, and if one has proved able and efficient in public office, he is all the better fitted for better service. The chief difference between the man in office and the man out, the one in knows something and the other fellow only thinks he does. Government is a complicated machine, and just anybody can not make it go. Don't be fooled. The fellow on the ground looking at an airplane may promise what he would do if he were up there. Get into a ship of state with such a "promiser" and watch how hard the ship comes down.

The way to measure a "politician" is to think of his bearing. Is he a real honest upright person; has he had an opportunity to see and to know about the many departments of the state; does he really know what to promise and what can be done; does he really know the limitations of the people when it comes to taxes; can he skillfully suggest needed legislation and get a majority of the legislature to see his way and really accomplish something? Such questions need first place in the minds of Texas' voters this summer. Don't let fan-fare and fiction sway one from sound thinking.

JUDGE ELY ENDORSES JOHN WOOD FOR R. R. COMMISSIONER

AUSTIN, Texas, June 20.—Judge W. R. Ely of Abilene, former chairman of the Texas Highway Commission, has issued a strong endorsement of John Wood of Timpson, present senior member of the commission, in his candidacy for nomination to the Railroad Commission. In it he declared it his belief that the highway department had never had a more capable commissioner. Following is Judge Ely's statement, as released through the Wood headquarters here:

"I desire to lend my whole-hearted endorsement to the candidacy of Honorable John Wood for Railroad Commissioner. The fact that there are a number of good men aspiring for this office convinced me that the people of Texas desire to change.

"John Wood succeeded me as chairman of the Highway Commission, but our relations during the time I served with him were always pleasant, and I found him capable, honest and energetic in his devotion to the welfare of the entire state. He is never sectionally-minded in

WERE PAID WITH WHEAT

It would have taken
2,086,257 bushels*
to pay Lone Star Gas
System's 1937 tax bill

*Based on average 1937
Price of $1.00 per Bushel

THIS is a lot of wheat—nearly half of the entire 1935 crop harvested in the 58 Texas counties in which Lone Star Gas System operates. To move these 2,086,257 bushels to the tax collector's office to pay the 54 different kinds of city, county, district, state and federal taxes would require 1,780 freight cars forming a train 13.8 miles long! So you see taxes are a very great factor in our operating expenses. Last year they amounted to 23.3% of operating and maintenance costs!

Taxes charged against this system have been increased 42% during the last four years and our rates are not up proportionately. This has created difficult conditions for us in maintaining our record of dependability when less and less of your gas dollar has been left to pay for the essentials of service.

In spite of greatly increased taxes and regulatory expenses Lone Star Gas Service still remains the cheapest on your household budget. One cent's worth of gas still operates a gas refrigerator from 8 to 10 hours or cooks a good dinner for three people.

matters pertaining to a coordinated system of state highways, and it is my candid judgement that the State Highway Department has never had a more capable highway commissioner than John Wood. While I served with him he held the esteem and confidence of the entire commission and personnel of the department and had the confidence and respect of the hundreds of county judges, commissioners and citizens of Texas who appeared before the commission. He has never before been a candidate for office.

"The multitude of duties of the complex affairs of the railroad commission, it seems to me, require the services of a young, vigorous and capable man, and I believe the people of Texas will be fortunate to have as a member of the next commission John Wood. He is absolutely dependable, and his past record for fairness and his ability to make friends of his colleagues will go far to harmonize the commission in its deliberations. While Mr. Wood is an East Texan, West Texas has never had a better friend, and I trust that my friends all over Texas will give him their unstinted support."

The next place on our schedule is at Mrs. D. M. Harris, but we will quilt for both Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Bert Fomby. Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Fomby are two of our most faithful members so let's show them our appreciation by being present some time during the day.—Reporter.

HAMLIN COW HANDS TO ATTEND REUNION

Hamlin members of the Texas Cowboy Reunion Association, composed of oldtime cowhands, which will hold its annual meeting during the reunion in Stamford July 4, 5 and 6, include: J. A. Edwards, J. L. Drake, M. Dawson, W. A. Archer, Mrs. J. C. Blanton, Leri Bush, Pat Collins, G. V. Calvert, Terry Cooper, J. W. Easterwood, Ollie Estes, W. M. Estes, Will Fomby, Dave Harris, R. L. Harris, Mrs. J. J. Herbst, O. S. Hunter, E. W. Johnson, C. S. Low, Mrs. Willie Martin, U. T. Medford, W. C. Medford, Mrs. A. D. McLaughlin, A. A. Oliver, D. W. Stephens, T. R. Stovall, W. L. Walton, and J. W. Yopp.

Members of the association receive the highly prized oldtime cowboys' metal badge upon payment of their annual dues of $1.00. The badge admits the member to all rodeo performances with grandstand privileges, to the cowboy square dances at the bunkhouse each night and is the meal ticket for the chuckwagon dinner each day at noon.

Entertainment of the oldtime cowhands, whose ranks are fast thinning, is one of the main purposes of the Texas Cowboy Reunion. Their gathering is an occasion for reviving memories of frontier life on Texas cattle ranches and preserving customs and traditions of the old west.

Walt Cousins of Dallas, former West Texas cowhand who is serving his second term as president of the association, will preside at the meeting of the oldtimers. Officers for the coming year will be elected.

The meetings will be held in the enlarged cowboy bunkhouse, permanent home of the association, which is being completed along the lines it was originally designed at a cost of $6,300.

OTHER REUNION ITEMS

Some 200 top cowhands from Texas ranches will compete for $2,300 in prizes in the rodeo contests during the ninth annual Texas Cowboy Reunion in Stamford July 4, 5 and 6. The rodeo is the central attraction in an elaborate program of entertainment for the three-day celebration which is expected to bring 75,000 visitors to Stamford.

R. M. Swenson, rodeo director, announced this week completion of arrangements for a line of rodeo stock calculated to give contestants plenty of difficulty. The Reunion's own string of bucking horses, which includes such well-known outlaws as "Calamity Jane," "Dr. Blackwell" and "Pitchfork Bay," has been supplemented with 25 pitching steeds leased from Homer Todd of Fort Smith, Ark. Todd supplied some of the stock which gave bronc-riding contestants so much trouble last year.

The Reunion's own herd of 25 bucking Brahma steers has been increased to 40 by animals secured from J. P. McFarland of Weatherford, assuring plenty of action in the steer-riding contest. Stock for the wild-cow-milking contest and the calf-roping event was selected in south Texas by "Scandalous John" Selman, arena director and Bill Lyons of Petrolia. Sixty Brahma calves were picked from a large number to secure uniformity of size and ample speed.

The distinctive feature of the Reunion rodeo is that its contestants are actual cowhands from the ranches rather than professional rodeo performers. Three performances will be held daily—8:30 A. M., 2 P. M. and 8 P. M. Besides the regular rodeo contests in bronc-riding, calf-roping, steer riding and wild-cow-milking at all nine performances, a cutting horse contest will be held on the morning of July 5. Old-time cowboys, over 55 years of age, will compete in a special calf-rop-

COLORED PEOPLE HAD BIG DAY

The colored people of the city celebrated their 73rd emancipation. On Saturday evening a big affair was held in East Hamlin by the colored folks. George Rivers was manager and he used Rev. Claud E. Henderson as speaker.

The speaker stressed the following facts: "Slavery is gone but it served well its purpose, we should be thankful to the better class of good white people for having taken the negroes after their freedom and teaching them a trade and teaching them how to become useful men and women of our race. We find today in all walks of life negroes who can fill any position that duty may call him to accept, be it art or science, in the field of religion or not.

"The greatest Protestant church of America today is a negro church in the city of Chicago whose membership exceeds fifteen thousand.

"There is a low class in all races and some eminent ones. We want the other race to use discrimination. All negroes are not alike. It has been said the negro is more inclined to crime than other races but let us accept conditions as they come. Other races go free on what the negro will be punished for. We have not money enough to employ a lawyer to plead our case, hence we must bear the penalty. We must admit again that we are still infants having two hundred and forty-six years of bondage and only seventy-three years of freedom.

"The true negro does not seek social equality. We are pleased with our race but we do seek for more rights in the courts of the country. The negro is the most loyal person of today. The white man has no better friend. The negro is whatever some man has told him to be. While in chains, we fought to free white men. Our ancestors stayed home and took care of their master's families while they marched off to the front on the firing lines.

"Give the negro a chance to prove his usefulness."

PAIN

Get rid of it

When functional pains of menstruation are severe, take CARDUI. If it doesn't benefit you, consult a physician. Don't neglect such pains. They depress the tone of the nerves, cause sleeplessness, loss of appetite, wear out your resistance. Get a bottle of Cardui and see whether it will help you, as thousands of women have said it helped them.

Besides easing certain pains, Cardui aids in building up the whole system by helping women to get more strength from their food.

The reduced interest rates on Federal land bank and Commissioner loans have been extended by Federal legislation for a period of two years, according to word received from the Federal Land Bank by Tate May, Secretary-Treasurer of the Hamlin National Farm Loan Association.

On Federal land bank loans through national farm loan associations the temporarily reduced rate of 3 1/2 per cent per annum will be continued for all interest installments payable prior to July 1, 1940.

The temporarily reduced rate of 4 per cent on Land Bank Commissioner loans is also continued until July 1, 1940.

"The temporary interest reduction does not change the contract interest rate, that is, the rate written in the mortgage at the time a loan was made," Mr. May said. "At present the contract rates on new land bank loans are 4 per cent for loans through unimpaired associations. The contract rate on all Commissioner loans made through the land bank is 5 per cent. Under the law, as now amended, both land bank and Commissioner borrowers will resume interest payments at their respective contract rates on July 1, 1940.

AUTO MODELS—Latest advices from Detroit are that 1939 models, to be shown in November, may not be so radically changed as heretofore expected. Reason is that curtailment of auto buying this year has created a potential demand for new cars which could make itself felt at the first sign of business recovery without recourse to the added stimulant that unusual new designs might give. Businessmen watch auto production figures closely. For the automobile industry is the biggest customer of many other industries. Last year, when 5,000,000 cars and trucks were produced, 3,725,000 carloads of freight were provided American railroads. The motor industry buys 18 per cent of America's steel output, 73 per cent of plate glass, 11 per cent of copper, 36 per cent of lead, 12 per cent of aluminum, 28 per cent of nickel, 46 per cent of upholstery leather and nine per cent of the U. S. cotton output.

DO YOU KNOW THAT—Fifty million false teeth are exported from the U. S. annually. . . 68,000,000 telephone calls are made daily or 3 1/2 for each telephone in the Bell system. . . Mrs. American housewife washes three miles of clothes every year. . . Hidden taxes add five cents to the price of a tube of toothpaste. . . In the last six years Australia has sold three times as much wheat in world markets as the U. S. . . A piano is owned by one out of every six American families, and 40 per cent of the pianos are between 15 and 60 years old. . . Enough eggs are produced in this country to supply 236 a year to each man, woman and child.

HEADLINES—Government may spend $1,400,000,000 to aid 6,000,000 farmers faced with drop of nearly one-third in market prices for farm products. . . National City Bank predicts dull business this summer, but pickup in fall. . . Crude rubber export quota slashed to 45 per cent; rubber plantation owners turn to growing oil palms to fill gap in rubber sales. . . ### "19 Days Hath September . . ."

"THIRTY days hath September . . ." Thus runs the familiar jingle but it wasn't true in the year 1752 when Great Britain (and her American colonies) adopted the Gregorian calendar. In that year, the month had only nineteen days.

But let James Franklin in his "Poor Job's Almanac" (an imitation of his brother, Benjamin Franklin's "Poor Richard's Almanac"), published at Newport "at the Printing Office under the Town School House," tell about it. He said:

Kind Reader: You have now such a year as you never saw before, nor will see hereafter, the King and Parliament of Great Britain having thought proper to enact that the month of September, 1752, shall contain but nineteen days, which will shorten this year eleven days, and have extended the same throughout the British dominions; so that we are not to have two beginnings to our years, but the first of January is to be the first day and the first month of the year 1752.

Eleven days are taken from September, and begin, 1, 2, 14, 15, etc. Be not astonished, nor look with concern, Dear Reader, at such a deduction of days, nor regret as for the loss of so much time; but take this for your consolation, that your expenses will perhaps appear lighter, and your mind be more at ease. And what an indulgence is here for those who love their pillows, to lie down in peace on the second of this month, and not perhaps awake or be disturbed till the fourteenth, in the morning!

And, Reader, this is not to hasten the payment of debts, freedom of apprentices or servants, or the coming to age of minors; but the number of natural days in all agreements are to be fulfilled. All Church Holidays and Courts are to be on the same nominal days they were before; but fairs, after the second of September, after the nominal days, and so deemed to be held eleven days later. Now, Reader, since 'tis likely you may never have such another year nor such another almanac, I would advise you to improve the one for your own sake, and I recommend the other for the sake of your friend, Poor Job.

Epitaph

PERHAPS the most famous epitaph in American history is this:

The Body of Benjamin Franklin, Printer, (Like the cover of an old book, its contents torn out, And strip of its lettering and gilding.) Lies food for worms: Yet the work itself shall not be lost, For it will (as he believed) appear once more, In a new and more beautiful edition, Corrected and Amended by The Author.

Franklin at the age of twenty-three wrote that for his own gravestone. But the idea wasn't original with him. He "borrowed" it from one of two sources.

In 1681 Rev. Joseph Capen suggested as an appropriate epitaph for John Carter, who had set up the first printing press in Massachusetts, one which likened the printer's body to "an old almanac, for the present only's out of date" and predicted "at the resurrection we shall see a fair edition . . . free from errata, new in Heaven set forth."

But the one which Franklin more likely copied was written by Benjamin Woodbridge, a member of the first graduating class of Harvard college. It was for some unknown friend in which he was compared to "a living, breathing Bible" and declared that:

When in a new edition, he comes forth! Without errata may we think he'll be, In leaves and covers of eternity!

This was printed in Cotton Mather's "Magnalia Christi Americana" and Franklin's early life was greatly influenced by the writings of that famous Puritan clergyman.

As a matter of fact neither Capen's nor Woodbridge's idea was original. Both probably "borrowed" from a still earlier epitaph which was engraved on the tomb of Jacob Tonsen, a London bookseller and which contained references to "the original text" in his life and "a new edition" in the future.

Points and Personalities

by doris pope

The first official day of summer arrived with a zoom and plenty of heat Tuesday, and along with it came some spectacular summer fads. It seems that the colored glasses are up—all kinds are popular from the "new" blinders to just plain shades. We even saw Jim Moody in a colored glasses. Then, Austy Poe has taken up B. L. Jones' "wind-blown shirt tail" style. A lot more are taking it up without any begging. Some of the young blades seem to find it a bit cooler with trousers rolled to just below the knees. And the femmes are tying their curls atop their heads so their ears can be cooled by the summer breezes—right now, we'll bet they'd like to trade places with Tom Williams or Tate May.

Seen around town: Denman Morgan with almost a sun-tan. . . . A decided increase in loafing in the air-conditioned stores. . . . Everybody wanting to go to the Aspermont Golden Jubilee on Friday. . . . they're serving free barbecue that day. . . . J. C. Turner Jr. making a speech to the Lions like a seasoned and experienced lawyer. . . . this isn't a crack, either. . . . The visiting girls getting a rush. . . . Jasper Holt getting fat on four chicken dinners. . . . Otto Berlin trying to fix a radio aerial so he can hear the fight. . . . we still wonder how he got down from the roof without any broken bones or something. . . . Pinky Fitzgerald mowing the lawn in front of a certain young lady's house.

Hamlin certainly turned out for the ball game between the Haliburton Cementers and the General Crude Oilers, and nobody was disappointed. The boys gave a real exhibition of good ball playing. The Cementers were good natured fellows as well as good ball players; they gave the Hamlin Oilers some stiff competition in a neck and neck game. And we heard plenty of cheers and jeers from the spectators with most of the cheers going to Arice Jones, the peppy little catcher for the Oilers, Brad Rowland at the bat, and Lefty Courtney in the pitcher's box.

Names are getting to be non-essential in our fair city, since all of the eligibles are now being designated by the kind of car they drive.

If you have hay-fever, you had better not see a certain well known jewelry store owner, for she heard that the latest way to cure the ailment is to paint one's feet with iodine. She is trying to find a victim to try the cure on to see if it really works. (After all the feet are a little distant from the source.)

A very attractive young lady visitor from the East seems to be thoroughly in love with the West and is trying in every manner to acquire "western ways." She even gets up at 6:00 A. M. to gather beans out of the garden. . . . not many of our native gals would do that.

We forgot to mention last week that the Lions Club is going in for dramatics and was planning to give "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" on June 25, until Lion Joe McCrary reminded the members that one of the leading characters would be unable to be there because of a previous "engagement." The cast, as far as we could learn, is: Snow White, Hub Hyatt; Prince, Arlie Castle; Dopey (who doesn't talk), Gerald Pitts Morgan; Happy, Ted Russell; Sneezy, Jim Dunlap, the Queen, Harold Bonner. Maybe you can find out the rest of the characters.

What four popular young girls think Hamlin is a dull town since the skating rink and the boys have gone to Breckenridge? (Ask the Hamlin Boys.)

If you want to see the living "spirit of perseverance and determination," just put Floyd Daley on a pair of skates.

We'll bet that the 2,000 firemen attending the State Convention in Amarillo had a hot time. We haven't succeeded in getting Carl Young, Lott Shell, Brad Rowland or "Pistol" Crow to "talk" since they got back, but some people are still wondering how one of the boys got a ladies over-nite pass mixed up in his baggage.

Another point about the firemen is how they happened to go way around by Plainview through Turkey and landed in Rule via automobile when they left here with passes to ride the train.

People are marveling at the great crowds that W. Lee O'Daniel is attracting and all the attention he is getting by his combination of politics and showmanship. O'Daniel is capitalizing an idea that the movies have been using in second and third rate pictures and a few first rate pictures for years and years. He is smart enough to take an idea when it is thrown in his face—we are the ones that are terribly dumb.

From the State Observer, we see: "That the Thompson boys are saying it will be Thompson and O'Daniel in the runoff. That the McCraw boys are saying it will be McCraw and O'Daniel in the runoff. That the Hunter boys are saying it will be Hunter and O'Daniel in the runoff. That the O'Daniel boys are saying there won't be any runoff."

It remains to be seen if the votes will go the way the crowd goes.

WASHINGTON NEWS

FROM CONGRESSMAN
CLYDE L. GARRETT

WALSH-HEALY BILL — The House Committee on the Judiciary has approved by a vote of 12 to 7 the Walsh-Healey bill denying government business to companies that violate the Labor Relations act.

XX

RADIO BROADCASTING — George C. Payne, a member of the Federal Communications Commission, has asked the House Committee on Rules to pave the way for House action on a resolution for a special committee of the House to investigate monopoly in radio broadcasting. He charged that the radio broadcasting companies, through lobbyists, have tried to influence the FCC.

XX

INVESTIGATIONS — While the committees investigating TVA is contemplating extensive hearings in Tennessee in July, the Senate committee investigating lobbying activities is waiting for more funds to continue its investigation. A preliminary report covering eleven-months stated that due to "rapidly changing conditions," it recommended no legislation.

XX

JUDICIARY — Senator O'Mahoney's resolution authorizing study of monopolistic practices has been revised to remove threat of executive control, by the Senate Judiciary Committee considering it. An amendment to remove authority give the President to allocate $500,000 proposed for study by executive departments, and substitute a study by a committee jointly representing the Senate, House, Justice and Commerce Department, SEC and FTC, was approved by the committee.

XX

SOIL FERTILITY — A large group of people feel that the President is right in advising Congress that it should give attention to a study of the phosphate resources of the country. They believe that is important that phosphate deposits be developed and conserved for the benefit of American agriculture. Fertilizers are becoming more and more important for replenishing exhausted farm lands and the country will some day be dependent upon phosphates and other contributing elements to promote plant growth. Opponents of such a program of conservation, state that the available supply is abundant and conservation is far from necessary now, as the U. S. has great supplies and the amount is enough to last centuries.

XX

RAILROADS — Chairman Splawn, of the I. C. C., believes that financial troubles of the railroads will be solved by increased business rather than by legislation. A House subcommittee on Judiciary is considering a bill to speed up railway reorganization procedure.

XX

WALLACE TO INCREASE USE OF SURPLUSES — Secretary Hery A. Wallace announced that in view of the existing surpluses of many farm commodities he has requested the executive committee of the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation to cooperate with the state and local relief organizations and similar agencies in determining the extent of unfilled need for food and clothing among people on relief. Twin disasters occurring within the last few months have caused the people of the U. S. to adopt once more an emergency action program under the leadership of President Roosevelt. One disaster, due to man's failure to regulate his own affairs wisely, is the shutdown or part-time operation of factories. The other disaster, due in part to the bounty of nature, is the fall of farm prices and farm income under the weight of huge surpluses.

XX

BIOLOGICAL SURVEY BEGINS FUR FARM INVENTORY — The U. S. Biological Survey has begun a nation-wide inquiry to assemble basic statistics on fur farms of the country. First of its kind and extent in the U. S., the project has been started by sending questionnaires to individual fur farmers on Bureau mailing lists. Fur trade associations and other agencies are cooperating by making other lists available. The Biological Survey is also requesting state directors of extension work and county agricultural agents to furnished the Bureau names of fur-farmers in the various counties. Individual fur farmers who do not receive questionnaires are requested to write to the Biological Survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., for a copy. Data obtained through the questionnaires will be assembled and tabulated with the help of W.P.A. workers on a project established in the Biological Survey's section of Fur Resources. The information compiled will be available but individual returns will be confidential.
